Voice of Change: Second Transnational Meeting

As part of the CERV project “Voice of Change”, the second transnational consortium meeting took place on June 5, 2025. Hosted by the Fachhochschule des Mittelstands (FHM) in Berlin, the event brought together 31 partners from 14 different EU countries.

The recent in-person meeting focused on exchanging ideas and making key decisions for upcoming project challenges, first identified during the September 2024 meeting in Rome. A highlight was the presentation of the Guidelines for Drafting Policy Recommendations by Dr. Rojda Subasi (FHM), which will guide the consortium in preparing the final report for the EU. Partners welcomed the document and agreed to contribute their insights through five scheduled online meetings, aiming to finalize the report by October 2025.

Partners introduced new dissemination strategies following the project’s strong online reception—over 1,000 website visits to date. These include national press releases, a new content plan for the second half of 2025, and regular updates via newsletters, social media, and website posts showcasing the consortium’s progress and achievements.

Webinars Successfully Completed!

During the Berlin meeting, Federica Leto (Roma Tre University) presented an analysis of the webinars held between February and March 2025, attended by participants from each partner country and external guests. The sessions focused on political and economic empowerment, leadership, and female entrepreneurship, aiming to boost women's participation in society and the EU. With the final webinar held on March 13, this key phase is now complete, and the consortium is moving forward with upcoming project goals.
